

The Payroll Company, Inc., Announces Lineup of Company Supported Non-Profits for 2019

Since its founding in 2005, supporting non-profits and the local community are a fundamental cornerstone of The Payroll Company, Inc..

Community Involvement—At The Payroll Company, it believes whole heartedly that business is not just about business, it's about relationships. For that reason, the company chooses to be very involved in the Albuquerque and New Mexico community. When the company participates in community events or support local businesses by using a local company's products and services and when it supports local non-profit organizations, the company, is then able to get to know people one-on-one, support local businesses, support its client's neighborhoods and support the non-profit organizations that support the people of Albuquerque and New Mexico when they need it most. Featured below is the list of Albuquerque and New Mexico community organizations and non-profit organizations supported by the company in 2019:

- * National Jewish Health
- * Leadership New Mexico
- * Albuquerque Country Club
- * New Mexico Medical Society
- * New Mexico Alliance for Hispanic Education
- * JDRF
- * Credit Union Association of New Mexico
- * Roadrunner Food Bank
- * Special Olympics of New Mexico
- * Hemophilia Foundation of New Mexico

States The Payroll Company, Inc., CEO Nestor Romero, "Supporting local businesses and non-profit organizations is definitely a cornerstone of our company. Doing what we can to support the local community, its businesses and its people is very important to us."
